The hidden one-in-five: winning a fair deal for Britain's vulnerable workers

---

Related outputs

Impact of BIG funding of community enterprise overseas

Migrant workers' interactions with welfare benefits: a review of recent evidence and its relevance for the tax credits system

European migrant workers' understanding and experience of the tax credits system

The role of employer attitudes and behaviour, JRF programme paper: Poverty and ethnicity

Recession and cohesion in Bradford
Recession and cohesion in Bradford

Employment Retention and Advancement (ERA) demonstration: delivery, take-up, and outcomes of in-work training support for lone parents

Jobseekers Regime and Flexible New Deal evaluation: a report on qualitative research findings

The EHRC Triennial Review: developing the employment evidence base

The influence of outcome-based contracting on Provider-led Pathways to Work

People with mental health conditions and Pathways to Work

'Reumbing along with the neighbours': everyday interactions in a diverse neighbourhood in the North of England

Public officials and community involvement in local services

Integration and Citizenship of Second Generation Nationals in the UK: Insights from recent research on social cohesion in diverse communities

Belonging and entitlement: shifting discourses of difference in multi-ethnic neighbourhoods in the UK

Network on Ethnicity and Women Scientists: state of the art report on the UK

Social cohesion in diverse communities

Race discrimination claims: unrepresented claimants' and employers' views on Acas' conciliation in employment tribunal cases

Neighbourhood responses to new immigration

Integration of second generation migrants in the UK: insights from recent research on social cohesion in diverse communities

A tale of two communities: reframing the debate on social cohesion

progress2work and progress2work-LinkUP: an exploratory study to assess evaluation possibilities

Ethnic minority perceptions and experiences of Jobcentre Plus
Using large-scale qualitative research to explore the experiences of jobless ethnic minority men and women

Immigration: its effects on demand and social cohesion: the latest research findings

Fairness at work for all: organising, representing and supporting vulnerable workers

Ethnic minority outreach: the experiences of ethnic minority women

Pathways to work: qualitative research on the Condition Management Programme

Pathways to work - extension to some existing customers: early findings from qualitative research

Book review: Development of culture, welfare states and women's employment in Europe, Birgit Pfau-Effinger.
Ashgate Publishing Limited, 2004, 217 pp., £49.95

Tackling the white-ethnic minority employment gap: Jobcentres and ethnic minority outreach

Making research work

Ethnic minority outreach: an evaluation

Mapping the Terrain of the Private Sector in Relation to Race

Independent living in later life

Maternity and paternity rights in Britain 2002: survey of parents

Tackling ethnic inequalities in private sector workplaces: progress and prospects

Disabled people and labour market disadvantage: evolving opportunities, evolving barriers?

Phoenix from the ashes?: Labor-management partnerships in Britain

Making second chances work : final report from the Qualitative Evaluation of Adult Basic Skills Pathfinder Extension Activities

Partnership in practice
Disappearing pathways and the struggle for a fair day's pay

Phoenix from the ashes?: Labour-management partnership in Britain

Disabled People and the National Minimum Wage: an exploration of the impact on therapeutic activity and earnings: final report to the Low Pay Commission's third review of the National Minimum Wage

Flexibility and reorganisation of work

Disabled people, disadvantage and (getting into) local government

The limits of statutory trade union recognition

The Limits of statutory trade union recognition

Flexible workers and the changing boundaries of work: theory and the practice

Job Insecurity and Work Intensification: Flexibility and the Changing Boundaries of Work

PERMALINK - https://westminsterresearch.westminster.ac.uk/item/925v7/the-hidden-one-in-five-winning-a-fair-deal-for-britain-s-vulnerable-workers

Share this

Tweet Email
“From retail workers to warehouse operatives, and from care workers to cleaners, we are beginning to uncover the hidden millions who are chronically broke year in, year out,” said Balaram. “The real danger for this group of workers is a childcare bill unpaid and yet another rent rise around the corner.” UK labour market statistics released on Wednesday showed employment reaching a record high last year. But, the RSA report makes clear, wider economic trends suggest workers are worse off as real wages fall and in-work poverty rises. The RSA report identifies what it calls Britain’s “new class s Only one answer in correct. The room was filled with warmth, bright lights and the incessant, excited chatter of children. But then you catch sight of the five glass cases of stuffed squirrels engaged in a frenzied boxing match. They do look like real ones! The rest of your visit tends to pass in a blur. The independence from Britain - the abolition of slavery - the American Constitution - the victory over France 11) Which president was the first to live in the White House? George Washington - John Adams - Abraham Lincoln - Thomas Jefferson 12) The Statue of Liberty was made in the USA – Great Britain – France – Germany 13) ‘Caledonia’ is a poetic name for